I, Robert J. Gralewski, Jr., declare as follows:

1. I am “Of Counsel” to the law firm Kirby McInerney LLP, counsel of record in this action. I am admitted to practice law in the State of California and before this Court. I have personal knowledge of the matters set forth herein and submit this declaration in support of Indirect Purchaser Plaintiffs’ Motion to Amend the Complaint.

1           2.       The parties are in the process of cooperatively scheduling and conducting the 2 numerous depositions of the class representatives. At the same time the parties were engaged in 3 scheduling the second round of these depositions, I informed Lucia Maxwell, counsel for the 4 Panasonic Defendants, that Plaintiffs wished to add new plaintiffs to the action. Ms. Maxwell
5 indicated that she would discuss the matter with her colleagues. Shortly thereafter she informed 6 me that Defendants would not agree to Plaintiffs' amending the complaint for the purpose of 7 adding new plaintiffs. Shortly thereafter, on Tuesday, April 10, 2012, I provided Ms. Maxwell
8 with a proposed schedule for the second round of class representative depositions. Despite Ms.
9 Maxwell's position, I made the proposed new plaintiffs available in that second round, informing 10 Ms. Maxwell that Plaintiffs would file a motion to amend and also stating, "So as to not prejudice
11 Defendants' discovery efforts, we are making these new plaintiffs available as part of the current 12 discovery process. Indeed, we will voluntarily be responding to all outstanding discovery on 13 behalf of these new plaintiffs by this coming Monday."

14           3.       The next day, Wednesday, April 11, 2012, Ms. Maxwell wrote back to me stating:
15 "We agree to take the depositions of the persons listed below who are actual plaintiffs . . . .
16 However, at this point, we are not going to take depositions of people that are not plaintiffs yet.
17 These four depositions should be deferred until your motion to amend is decided."

18           4.       Given Defense counsel's position, Plaintiffs elected not to respond voluntarily to 19 all outstanding discovery on behalf of the new proposed plaintiffs by Monday, April 16, 2012.
20 Plaintiffs will do so immediately if this motion is granted.

21           5.       In an effort to minimize the need to seek similar relief from the Court after this 22 motion is determined, Plaintiffs chose to take some additional time (mid-April until now) to 23 identify any other new plaintiffs. As a result, Plaintiffs have decided to add four new plaintiffs to 24 the original list of four new plaintiffs identified on April 10, 2012, bringing the total number to 25 eight.

26           6.       The eight proposed new plaintiffs will best represent the interests of the class
27 members on behalf of whom Plaintiffs seek to proceed.

1           7.       The parties have further met and conferred and agreed to a briefing schedule in 2 connection with this motion: Defendants' opposition will be filed on July 2, 2012, and Plaintiffs'
3 reply will be filed on July 12, 2012.

4           8.       I have informed Defense counsel that if Plaintiffs' motion is granted, Plaintiffs 5 will voluntarily "produce all documents and respond to interrogatories [on behalf of the new 6 plaintiffs] immediately and will make all of the new plaintiffs available for deposition right away
7 with the goal to have all depositions completed in August." Accordingly, should the motion be 8 granted, Defendants will suffer no prejudice as all class representatives will be deposed long 9 before Defendants' opposition to Plaintiffs' motion for class certification is due.

10          9.       Pursuant to Local Rule 10-1, a redline of the proposed fourth amended complaint
11 is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

12           I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that all of the 13 foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information and belief.

Plaintiffs Brian Luscher, Jeffrey Figone, Carmen Gonzalez, Dana Ross, Steven Ganz, ~~Bedrock Management Company, Inc., Lawyer's Choice Suites, Inc., Brady Lane Cotton, Colleen Sobotka~~ David Rooks, Daniel Riebow, Dean Haverkamp, Travis Burau, Southern Office Supply, Inc., Kerry Lee Hall, Lisa Reynolds, Barry Kushner, ~~Chad Klebs~~, Misti Walker David Norby, Ryan Rizzo, Charles Jenkins, ~~Daniel R. # I. INTRODUCTION

1. Plaintiffs bring this antitrust class action on behalf of individuals and entities that indirectly purchased Cathode Ray Tube Products ("CRT Products") (as further defined below), in the United States from Defendants, their predecessors, any subsidiaries or affiliates thereof, or any of their unnamed co-conspirators, during the period beginning at least as early as March 1, 1995 until at least November 25, 2007 (the "Class Period"). Plaintiffs allege that during the Class Period the Defendants conspired to fix, raise, maintain and/or stabilize prices of CRT Products sold in the United States. Because of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiffs and other Class Members paid artificially inflated prices for CRT Products and have suffered antitrust injury to their business or property.

2. As further detailed below, beginning in at least 1995, Defendants Samsung, Philips, Daewoo, LG and Chunghwa met or talked with at least one other Defendant in order to discuss and agree upon CRT Product prices and the amount of CRT Products each would produce. Over time, these Defendants reached out to the other Defendant CRT Product manufacturers, including Toshiba, Panasonic, Hitachi, BMCC, IRICO, Thai CRT and Samtel, who then also met or talked with their competitors for the purpose of fixing the prices of CRT

1 Products. By 1997, a formal system of multilateral and bilateral meetings was in place,
 2 involving the highest levels of the Defendant corporations, all with the sole purpose of fixing the 3 prices of CRT Products at supracompetitive levels.

4 3. Throughout the Class Period, Defendants' conspiracy was effective in 5 moderating the normal downward pressure on prices for CRT Products caused by periods of 6 oversupply and competition from new technologies, such as TFT-LCD and Plasma.
 7 Defendants' conspiracy resulted in unusually stable pricing and even rising prices in a very
 8 mature, declining market. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiffs and Class
 9 members paid higher prices for CRT Products than they would have paid in a competitive 10 market.

11 4. This global conspiracy is being investigated by the Antitrust Division of the 12 United States Department of Justice ("DOJ"), and by several other international competition
 13 authorities. On February 10, 2009, a federal grand jury in San Francisco issued a two-count
 14 indictment against C.Y. Lin, the former Chairman and CEO of Defendant Chunghwa Picture
 15 Tubes, Ltd., for his participation in a global conspiracy to fix the prices of CRTs used in 16 computer monitors and televisions. This is the first indictment to be issued in the DOJ's
 17 ongoing investigation into the CRT industry.

18 II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

19 5. This action is instituted under Section 16 of the Clayton Act, 15 U.S.C. § 26, to 20 obtain injunctive relief for violations of Section 1 of the Sherman Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1, to recover
 21 damages under state antitrust, unfair competition, and consumer protection laws, and to recover
 22 costs of suit, including reasonable attorneys' fees, for the injuries that Plaintiffs and all others
 23 similarly situated sustained as a result of the Defendants' violations of those laws.

24 6. The Court has subject matter jurisdiction over the federal claim under 28 U.S.C.
 25 §§ 1331 and 1337. The Court has subject matter jurisdiction over the state law claims under 28
 26 U.S.C. § 1367 because those claims are so related to the federal claim that they form part of the 27 same case or controversy.

1           7.       This court also has subject matter jurisdiction over the state law claims pursuant
2 to the Class Action Fairness Act of 2005, which amended 28 U.S.C. § 1332 to add a new 3 subsection (d) conferring federal jurisdiction over class actions where, as here, “any member of 4 a class of Plaintiffs is a citizen of a state different from any Defendant and the aggregated
5 amount in controversy exceeds $5,000,000, exclusive of interest and costs.” This Court also has 6 jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d) because “one or more members of the class is a citizen of 7 a state within the United States and one or more of the Defendants is a citizen or subject of a 8 foreign state.”

9           8.       Venue is proper in this Judicial District pursuant to Section 12 of the Clayton Act
10 (15 U.S.C. § 22) and 28 U.S.C. § 1391 (b), (c) and (d), because during the Class Period one or 11 more of the Defendants resided, transacted business, was found, or had agents in, this district,
12 and because a substantial part of the events giving rise to Plaintiffs’ claims occurred in this 13 district, and a substantial portion of the affected portion of the interstate trade and commerce
14 described below has been carried out in this district.

15           9.       Defendants conduct business throughout the United States, including this 16 jurisdiction, and they have purposefully availed themselves of the laws of the United States,
17 including specifically the laws of the state of California and the individual states listed herein.
18 Defendants’ products are sold in the flow of interstate commerce, and Defendants’ activities had 19 a direct, substantial and reasonably foreseeable effect on such commerce.

20           10.      Defendants’ conspiracy to fix the prices of CRT Products substantially affected
21 commerce throughout the United States and in each of the states identified herein, because 22 Defendants directly or through their agents, engaged in activities affecting each such state.
23 Defendants have purposefully availed themselves of the laws of each of the states identified 24 herein in connection with their activities relating to the production, marketing, and sale and/or 25 distribution of CRT Products. Defendants produced, promoted, sold, marketed, and/or 26 distributed CRT Products, thereby purposefully profiting from access to indirect purchaser
27 consumers in each such state. As a result of the activities described herein, Defendants:

28           a.       Caused damage to the residents of the states identified herein;

- b. Caused damage in each of the states identified herein by acts or omissions committed outside each such state and by regularly doing or soliciting business in each such state;
- c. Engaged in a persistent course of conduct within each state and/or derived substantial revenue from the marketing and sale of CRT Products in each such state; and
- d. Committed acts or omissions that they knew or should have known would cause damage (and, in fact, did cause damage) in each such state while regularly doing or soliciting business in each such state, engaging in other persistent courses of conduct in each such state, and/or deriving substantial revenue from the marketing and sale of CRT Products in each such state.

11. The conspiracy described herein adversely affected every person nationwide, and more particularly, consumers in each of the states identified in this Complaint, who indirectly purchased Defendants' CRT Products. Defendants' conspiracy has resulted in an adverse monetary effect on indirect purchasers in each state identified herein.

12. Prices of CRT Products in each state identified in this Complaint were raised to supracompetitive levels by the Defendants and their co-conspirators. Defendants knew that commerce in CRT Products in each of the states identified herein would be adversely affecting by implementing their conspiracy.

III. DEFINITIONS

13. As used herein, the term "CRT" or "CRTs" stands for "cathode ray tube(s)." A CRT is a display technology used in televisions, computer monitors and other specialized applications. The CRT is a vacuum tube that is coated on its inside face with light sensitive phosphors. An electron gun at the back of the vacuum tube emits electron beams. When the electron beams strike the phosphors, the phosphors produce either red, green, or blue light. A system of magnetic fields inside the CRT, as well as varying voltages, directs the beams to

1 produce the desired colors. This process is rapidly repeated several times per second to produce
2 the desired images.

3 14. There are two types of CRTs: color display tubes (“CDTs”) which are used in 4 computer monitors and other specialized applications; and color picture tubes (“CPTs”) which 5 are used in televisions. CDTs and CPTs are collectively referred to herein as “cathode ray
6 tubes” or “CRTs.”

7 15. As used herein “CRT Products” includes (a) CRTs; and (b) products containing 8 CRTs, such as television sets and computer monitors.

9 16. The “Class Period” or “relevant period” means the period beginning at least 10 March 1, 1995 through at least November 25, 2007.

11 17. “Person” means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other 12 business or legal entity.

13 18. “OEM” means any Original Equipment Manufacturer of CRT Products.

 14 affiliates, to customers throughout the United States.

15 97. Defendant IRICO Display Devices Co., Ltd. (“IDDC”) is a Chinese company
 16 with its principal place of business located at No. 16, Fenghui South Road West, District High-17 tech Development Zone, Xi’an, SXI 710075. IDDC is a partially-owned subsidiary of 18 defendant IGC. In 2006, IDDC was China’s top CRT maker. During the Class Period, IDDC
 19 manufactured, marketed, sold and/or distributed CRT Products, either directly or indirectly
 20 through its subsidiaries or affiliates, to customers throughout the United States. Defendant IGC
 21 dominated and controlled the finances, policies and affairs of IDDC relating to the antitrust
 22 violations alleged in this Complaint.

23 98. Defendant IRICO Group Electronics Co., Ltd. (“IGE”) is a Chinese company
 24 with its principal place of business located at 1 Caihong Rd., Xianyang City, Shaanxi Province
 25 712021. IGE is owned by Defendant IGC. According to its website, IGE was the first CRT
 26 manufacturer in China and one of the leading global manufacturers of CRTs. Their website also 27 claims that in 2003, they were the largest CRT manufacturer in China in terms of production and 28 sales volume, sales revenue and aggregated profit and taxation. During the Class Period, IGE

1 manufactured, marketed, sold and/or distributed CRT Products, either directly or indirectly
 2 through its subsidiaries or affiliates, to customers throughout the United States. Defendant IGC
 3 dominated and controlled the finances, policies and affairs of IGE relating to the antitrust
 4 violations alleged in this Complaint.

5 99. Defendants IGC, IDDC, and IGE are collectively referred to herein as “IRICO.”

6 Thai CRT

7 100. Defendant Thai CRT Company, Ltd. (“Thai CRT”) is a Thai company with its 8 principal place of business located at 1/F Siam Cement Road, Bangsue Dusit, Bangkok, 9 Thailand. Thai CRT is a subsidiary of Siam Cement Group. It was established in 1986 as 10 Thailand’s first manufacturer of CRTs for color televisions. During the Class Period, Thai CRT
 11 manufactured, marketed, sold and/or distributed CRT Products, either directly or indirectly
 12 through its subsidiaries or affiliates, to customers throughout the United States.

13 Samtel

14 101. Defendant Samtel Color, Ltd. (“Samtel”) is an Indian company with its principal 15 place of business located at 52, Community Centre, New Friends Colony, New Delhi-110065.
 16 Samtel’s market share for CRTs sold in India is approximately 40%. Samtel is India’s largest 17 exporter of CRTs. Samtel has gained safety approvals from the United States, Canada, Germany
 18 and Great Britain for its CRT Products. During the Class Period, Samtel manufactured, 19 marketed, sold and/or distributed CRT Products, either directly or indirectly through its 20 subsidiaries or affiliates, to customers throughout the United States.

21 Daewoo/Orion Entities

22 102. During the Class Period, Orion Electric Company (“Orion”) was a major 23 manufacturer of CRTs. Orion was a Korean corporation which filed for bankruptcy in 2004. In 24 1995, approximately 85% of Orion’s $1 billion in sales was attributed to CRTs. Orion was 25 involved in CRT Product sales and manufacturing joint ventures and had subsidiaries all over 26 the world, including South Africa, France, Indonesia, Mexico, and the United States. Plaintiffs 27 are informed and believe that Orion was wholly owned by the “Daewoo Group.” The Daewoo
 28 Group included Daewoo Electronics Company, Ltd., Daewoo Telecom Company, Daewoo

Corporation, and Orion Electric Components Company. The Daewoo Group was dismantled in or around 1999. Daewoo Electronics and Orion were 50/50 joint venture partners in an entity called Daewoo-Orion Société Anonyme (“DOSA”) in France. As of approximately 1996, DOSA produced 1.2 million CRTs annually. Daewoo sold DOSA’s CRT business in or around 2004. In December 1995, Orion partnered with defendant Toshiba Corporation and two other non-defendant entities to form P.T. Tosummit Electronic Devices Indonesia (“TEDI”) in Indonesia. TEDI was projected to have an annual production capacity of 2.3 million CRTs by 1999. During the Class Period, Orion, Daewoo Electronics, TEDI and DOSA manufactured, marketed, sold and/or distributed CRT Products, either directly or indirectly through their subsidiaries or affiliates, to customers throughout the United States.

103. Daewoo Electronics, Orion, and DOSA are collectively referred to herein as “Daewoo.”

104. All of the above-listed defendants are collectively referred to herein as “Defendants.”

VI. AGENTS AND CO-CONSPIRATORS

105. Various other persons, firms and corporations, not named as Defendants herein, and presently unknown to Plaintiffs, have participated as co-conspirators with Defendants and have performed acts and made statements in furtherance of the conspiracy and/or in furtherance of the anticompetitive, unfair or deceptive conduct. Plaintiffs reserve the right to name some or all of these Persons as Defendants at a later date.

106. Whenever in this Complaint reference is made to any act, deed or transaction of any corporation, the allegation means that the corporation engaged in the act, deed or transaction by or through its officers, directors, agents, employees or representatives while they were actively engaged in the management, direction, control or transaction of the corporation’s business or affairs.

107. Defendants are also liable to acts done in furtherance of the alleged conspiracy by companies they acquired through mergers or acquisitions.

Each of the Defendants named herein acted as the agent or joint venturer of or for the other Defendants with respect to the acts, violations and common course of conduct alleged herein. Each Defendant which is a subsidiary of a foreign parent acts as the sole United States agent for CRT Products made by its parent company.

VII. INTERSTATE TRADE AND COMMERCE

108. Throughout the Class Period, each Defendant, or one or more of its subsidiaries, sold CRT Products in the United States in a continuous and uninterrupted flow of interstate and international commerce, including through and into this judicial district.

109. During the Class Period, Defendants collectively controlled the vast majority of the market for CRT Products, both globally and in the United States.

110. Defendants' unlawful activities, as described herein, took place within the flow of interstate commerce to purchasers of CRT Products located in states other than the states in which Defendants are located, as well as throughout the world, and had a direct, substantial and reasonably foreseeable effect upon interstate and international commerce, including the United States markets for CRT Products.

VIII. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

A. CRT Technology

111. CRT technology was first developed more than a century ago. The first commercially practical CRT television was made in 1931. It was not until the RCA Corporation introduced the product at the 1939 World's Fair, however, that it became widely available to consumers. Since then, CRTs have become the heart of most display products, including televisions, computer monitors, oscilloscopes, air traffic control monitors, and ATMs. Even large public displays, including many scoreboards at sports arenas, are comprised of thousands of single color CRTs.

112. As noted above, the CRT is a vacuum tube that is coated on its inside face with light sensitive phosphors. An electron gun at the back of the vacuum tube emits electron beams. When the electron beams strike the phosphors, the phosphors produce either red, green, or blue light. A system of magnetic fields inside the CRT, as well as varying voltages, directs the beams to produce the desired colors. This process is rapidly repeated several times per second to produce the desired images.

113. The quality of a CRT display is dictated by the quality of the CRT itself. No external control or feature can make up for a poor quality tube. In this regard, the CRT defines the whole product such that the product is often simply referred to as “the CRT.”

114. Until the last few years, CRTs were the dominant technology used in displays, including television and computer monitors. During the Class Period, this translated into the sale of millions of CRT Products, generating billions of dollars in annual profits.

B. Structural Characteristics Of The CRT Market

115. The structural characteristics of the CRT Product market are conducive to the type of collusive activity alleged in this Complaint. These characteristics include market concentration, ease of information sharing, the consolidation of manufacturers, multiple interrelated business relationships, significant barriers to entry, maturity of the CRT Product market, and homogeneity of products.

a. Market Concentration

116. During the Class Period, the CRT industry was dominated by relatively few companies. In 2004, defendants Samsung SDI, LG.Philips Displays (n/k/a LP Displays), MT Picture Display and Chunghwa together held a collective 78% share of the global CRT market. The high concentration of market share facilitates coordination since there are fewer cartel members among which to coordinate pricing or allocate markets, and it is easier to monitor the pricing and production of other cartel members.

b. Information Sharing

1 117. Because of common membership in trade associations for the CRT Product
2 market and related markets (for e.g., TFT-LCD), interrelated business arrangements such as 3 joint ventures, allegiances between companies in certain countries, and relationships between 4 the executives of certain companies, there were many opportunities for Defendants to discuss
5 and exchange competitive information. The ease of communication was facilitated by the use of 6 meetings, telephone calls, e-mails, and instant messages. Defendants took advantage of these 7 opportunities to discuss and agree upon their pricing for CRT Products.

8 118. Defendants Chunghwa, Hitachi and Samsung are all members of the Society for 9 Information Display. Defendants Samsung and LG Electronics, Inc. are two of the co-founders
10 of the Korea Display Industry Association. Similarly, Daewoo, LG Electronics, LP Displays, 11 and Samsung are members of the Electronic Display Industrial Research Association. Upon 12 information and belief, Defendants used these trade associations as vehicles for discussing and 13 agreeing upon their pricing for CRT Products. At the meetings of these trade associations, 14 Defendants exchanged proprietary and competitively sensitive information which they used to 15 implement and monitor the conspiracy.

16 c. Consolidation

17 119. The CRT Product industry also had significant consolidation during the Class
18 Period, including but not limited to: (a) the creation of LG.Philips Displays (n/k/a LP Displays)
19 in 2001 as a joint venture between Royal Philips and LG Electronics, Inc.; and (b) the 2002
20 merger of Toshiba and Matsushita/Panasonic's CRT business into MTPD.

21 120. Defendants also consolidated their manufacturing facilities in lower cost venues
22 such as China and reduced manufacturing capacity to prop up prices.

23 d. Multiple Interrelated Business Relationships

24 121. The CRT Product industry has a close-knit nature whereby multiple business 25 relationships between supposed competitors blur the lines of competition and provided ample 26 opportunity to collude. These business relationships also created a unity of interest among 27 competitors so that the conspiracy was easier to implement and enforce than if such 28 interrelationships did not exist.

122. Examples of the high degree of cooperation among Defendants in both the CRT Product market and other closely related markets include the following:

a. The formation of the CRT joint venture LG.Philips Displays in 2001 by Defendants LG Electronics, Inc. and Royal Philips.

b. Defendants LG Electronics, Inc. and Royal Philips also formed LG.Philips LCD Co., Ltd., n/k/a LG Display Co., Ltd. in 1999 as a joint venture for the purpose of manufacturing TFT-LCD panels.

c. The formation of the CRT joint venture MTPD in 2003 by Defendants Toshiba and Panasonic.

d. Defendants Toshiba and Panasonic also formed Toshiba-Matsushita Display Technology Co., Ltd. as a joint venture for the purpose of manufacturing TFT-LCD panels.

e. In December 1995, Defendants Daewoo and Toshiba partnered with two other non-Defendant entities to form TEDI which manufactured CRTs in Indonesia.

f. Defendants Daewoo and Toshiba also signed a cooperative agreement relating to LCDs in 1995. Pursuant to the agreement, Daewoo produced STN LCDs, and Toshiba, which had substituted its STN LCD production with TFT LCD production, marketed Daewoo's STN LCDs globally through its network.

g. Also in 1995, Defendant Chunghwa entered into a technology transfer agreement with Defendant Toshiba for large CPTs.

h. Defendant Chunghwa has a joint venture with Defendant Samsung Electronics Co., Ltd. for the production of liquid crystal display panels. Chunghwa now licenses the technology from Defendant Royal Philips, a recent development that helped resolve a patent infringement suit filed in 2002.

i. Defendants LG Electronics, Inc. and Hitachi Ltd. entered into a joint venture in 2000 for the manufacture, sale and distribution of optical storage products such as DVD drives.

j. Defendant Samtel participates in a joint venture, Samcor Glass Limited, with Defendant Samsung Electronics Co., Ltd. and non-Defendant Corning Inc., USA for the production and supply of picture tube glass.

k. Defendant Samtel claims to have supplied CRTs to Defendants LG Electronics, Inc., Samsung, Royal Philips, and Panasonic.

e. High Costs Of Entry Into The Industry

123. There are substantial barriers to entry in the CRT Products industry. It would require substantial time, resources and industry knowledge to even potentially overcome the barriers to entry. It is also extremely unlikely that a new producer would enter the market in light of the declining demand for CRT Products.

f. The Maturity Of The CRT Product Market

124. Newer industries are typically characterized by rapid growth, innovation and high profits. The CRT Product market is a mature one, and like many mature industries, is characterized by slim profit margins, creating a motivation to collude.

125. Demand for CRT Products was declining throughout the Class Period. Static or declining demand is another factor which makes the formation of a collusive arrangement more likely because it provides a greater incentive to firms to avoid price competition.

126. In addition, conventional CRT televisions and computer monitors were being rapidly replaced by TFT-LCD and Plasma displays. This was one of the factors which led Defendants to engage in this alleged price fixing scheme in order to slow down declining CRT Product prices. Between 2000 and 2006, revenues from the sale of CRT televisions in the United States declined by 50.7 percent and are predicted to decline by an additional 84.5 percent between 2006 and 2010.

127. Although demand was declining as a result of the popularity of flat-panel LCD/plasma televisions and LCD monitors, CRT televisions and monitors were still the dominant display technology during the Class Period, making Defendants' collusion and the international price fixing conspiracy worthwhile. Due to the high costs of LCD panels and

1 plasma displays during the Class Period, a substantial market for CRT Products existed as a 2 cheaper alternative to these new technologies.

3 128. In 1999, CRT monitors accounted for 94.5 percent of the retail market for 4 computer monitors in North America. By 2002, that figure had dropped to 73 percent; still a 5 substantial share of the market.

6 129. As for CRT televisions, they accounted for 73 percent of the North American
7 television market in 2004, and by the end of 2006, still held a 46 percent market share. CRT
8 televisions continue to dominate the global television market, accounting for 75 percent of 9 worldwide TV units in 2006.

10 g. Homogeneity Of CRT Products

11 130. CRT Products are commodity-like products which are manufactured in 12 standardized sizes. One Defendant's CRT Products for a particular application, such as a 13 particular size television set or computer monitor, is substitutable for another's. Defendants sell 14 and Plaintiffs (and Class members) purchase CRT Products primarily on the basis of price.

15 131. It is easier to form and sustain a cartel when the product in question is 16 commodity-like because it is easier to agree on prices to charge and to monitor those prices once 17 an agreement is formed.

18 C. Pre-Conspiracy Market

19 132. The genesis of the CRT conspiracy was in the late 1980s as the CRT Products
20 business became more international and the Defendants began serving customers that were also 21 being served by other international companies. During this period, the employees of Defendants 22 would encounter employees from their competitors when visiting their customers. A culture of 23 cooperation developed over the years and these Defendant employees would exchange market
24 information on production, capacity, and customers.

25 133. In the early 1990s, representatives from Samsung, Daewoo, Chunghwa and 26 Orion visited each other's factories in S.E. Asia. During this period, these producers began to 27 include discussions about price in their meetings. The pricing discussions were usually limited, 28

1 however, to exchanges of the range of prices that each competitor had quoted to specific 2 customers.

3 D. Defendants' And Co-Conspirators' Illegal Agreements

4 134. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that in order to control
5 and maintain profitability during declining demand for CRT Products, Defendants and their co-
6 conspirators have engaged in a contract, combination, trust or conspiracy, the effect of which 7 has been to raise, fix, maintain and/or stabilize the prices at which they sold CRT Products to 8 artificially inflated levels from at least March 1, 1995 through at least November 25, 2007.

9 135. The CRT conspiracy was effectuated through a combination of group and 10 bilateral meetings. In the formative years of the conspiracy (1995-1996), bilateral discussions
11 were the primary method of communication and took place on an informal, ad hoc basis.
12 During this period, representatives from Defendants LG, Samsung and Daewoo visited the other 13 Defendant manufacturers including Philips, Chunghwa, Thai CRT, Hitachi, Toshiba, and 14 Panasonic to discuss increasing prices for CRT Products in general and to specific customers.
15 These meetings took place in Taiwan, South Korea, Thailand, Japan, Malaysia, Indonesia, and 16 Singapore.

17 136. Defendants Samsung, Chunghwa, LG and Daewoo also attended several ad hoc 18 group meetings during this period. The participants at these group meetings also discussed
19 increasing prices for CRT Products.

20 137. As more manufacturers formally entered the conspiracy, group meetings became 21 more prevalent. Beginning in 1997, the Defendants began to meet in a more organized, 22 systematic fashion, and a formal system of multilateral and bilateral meetings was put in place.
23 Defendants' representatives attended hundreds of these meetings during the Class Period.

24 138. The overall CRT conspiracy raised and stabilized worldwide prices (including 25 United States prices) that Defendants charged for CRT Products.

26 a. "Glass Meetings"

1           139. The group meetings among the participants in the CRT price-fixing conspiracy
2 were referred to by the participants as “Glass Meetings” or “GSM.” Glass Meetings were 3 attended by employees at three general levels of the Defendants’ corporations.

4           140. The first level of these meetings were attended by high level company executives
5 including CEOs, Presidents, and Vice Presidents, and were known as “Top Meetings.” Top
6 Meetings occurred less frequently, typically quarterly, and were focused on longer term
7 agreements and forcing compliance with price fixing agreements. Because attendees at Top
8 Meetings had authority as well as more reliable information, these meetings resulted in 9 agreements. Attendees at Top Meetings were also able to resolve disputes because they were 10 decision makers who could make agreements.

11           141. The second level of meetings were attended by the Defendants’ high level sales
12 managers and were known as “Management Meetings.” These meetings occurred more
13 frequently, typically monthly, and handled implementation of the agreements made at Top 14 Meetings.

15           142. Finally, the third level of meetings were known as “Working Level Meetings”
16 and were attended by lower level sales and marketing employees. These meetings generally
17 occurred on a weekly or monthly basis and were mostly limited to the exchange of information
18 and discussing pricing since the lower level employees did not have the authority to enter into 19 agreements. These lower level employees would then transmit the competitive information up
20 the corporate reporting chain to those individuals with pricing authority. The Working Level 21 Meetings also tended to be more regional and often took place near Defendants’ factories. In 22 other words, the Taiwanese manufacturers’ employees met in Taiwan, the Korean 23 manufacturers’ employees met in Korea, the Chinese in China, and so on.

24           a. The Chinese Glass Meetings began in 1998 and generally occurred on a 25 monthly basis following a top or management level meeting. The China meetings had the 26 principal purpose of reporting what had been decided at the most recent Glass Meeting to the 27 Chinese manufacturers. Participants at the Chinese meetings included the manufacturers located
28 in China, such as IRICO and BMCC, as well as the China-based branches of the other

1 Defendants, including but not limited to Hitachi Shenzhen, Samsung SDI Shenzhen, Samsung
2 SDI Tianjin, and Chunghwa.

3 b. Glass Meetings also occurred occasionally in various European countries.
4 Attendees at these meetings included those Defendants which had subsidiaries and/or 5 manufacturing facilities located in Europe, including Philips, LG, LP Displays, Chunghwa,
6 Samsung, Daewoo (usually DOSA attended these meetings on behalf of Daewoo), and IRICO.

7 143. Representatives of the Defendants also attended what were known amongst 8 members of the conspiracy as “Green Meetings.” These were meetings held on golf courses.
9 The Green Meetings were generally attended by top and management level employees of the 10 Defendants.

11 144. During the Class Period, Glass Meetings took place in Taiwan, South Korea, 12 Europe, China, Singapore, Japan, Indonesia, Thailand, and Malaysia.

13 145. Participants would often exchange competitively sensitive information prior to a 14 Glass Meeting. This included information on inventories, production, sales and exports. For 15 some such meetings, where information could not be gathered in advance of the meeting, it was 16 brought to the meeting and shared.

17 146. The Glass Meetings at all levels followed a fairly typical agenda. First, the 18 participants exchanged competitive information such as proposed future CRT pricing, sales 19 volume, inventory levels, production capacity, exports, customer orders, price trends, and 20 forecasts of sales volumes for coming months. The participants also updated the information
21 they had provided in the previous meeting. Each meeting had a rotating, designated “Chairman”
22 who would write the information on a white board. The meeting participants then used this 23 information to discuss and agree upon what price each would charge for CRTs to be sold in the 24 following month or quarter. They discussed and agreed upon target prices, price increases, so-
25 called “bottom” prices, and price ranges for CRTs. They also discussed and agreed upon prices
26 of CRTs that were sold to specific customers, and agreed upon target prices to be used in 27 negotiations with large customers. Having analyzed the supply and demand, the participants 28 would also discuss and agree upon production cutbacks.

1           147. During periods of oversupply, the focus of the meeting participants turned to 2 making controlled and coordinated price reductions. This was referred to as setting a “bottom
3 price.”

4           148. Defendants’ conspiracy included agreements on the prices at which certain
5 Defendants would sell CRTs to their own corporate subsidiaries and affiliates that manufactured
6 end products, such as televisions and computer monitors. Defendants realized the importance of 7 keeping the internal pricing to their affiliated OEMs at a high enough level to support the CRT
8 pricing in the market to other OEMs. In this way, Defendants ensured that all direct purchaser
9 OEMs paid supracompetitive prices for CRTs.

10           149. Each of the participants in these meetings knew, and in fact discussed, the 11 significant impact that the price of CRTs had on the cost of the finished products into which 12 they were placed. Like CRTs themselves, the market for CRT Products was a mature one, and 13 there were slim profit margins. The Defendants therefore concluded that in order to make their 14 CRT price increases stick, they needed to make the increase high enough that their direct
15 customers (CRT TV and monitor makers) would be able to justify a corresponding price
16 increase to their customers. In this way, Defendants ensured that price increases for CRTs were 17 passed on to indirect purchasers of CRT Products.

18           150. The agreements reached at the Glass Meetings included:

- 19           a. agreements on CRT Product prices, including establishing target prices,
20           “bottom” prices, price ranges, and price guidelines;
21           b. placing agreed-upon price differentials on various attributes of CRT
22           Products, such as quality or certain technical specifications;
23           c. agreements on pricing for intra-company CRT Product sales to vertically
24           integrated customers;
25           d. agreements as to what to tell customers about the reason for a price
26           increase;
27           e. agreements to coordinate with competitors that did not attend the group
28           meetings and agreements with them to abide by the agreed-upon pricing;

- f. agreements to coordinate pricing with CRT manufacturers in other geographic markets such as Brazil, Europe and India;
- g. agreements to exchange pertinent information regarding shipments, capacity, production, prices and customers demands;
- h. agreements to coordinate uniform public statements regarding available capacity and supply;
- i. agreements to allocate both overall market shares and share of a particular customer's purchases;
- j. agreements to allocate customers;
- k. agreements regarding capacity, including agreements to restrict output and to audit compliance with such agreements; and
- l. agreements to keep their meetings secret.

151. Efforts were made to monitor each Defendant's adherence to these agreements in a number of ways, including seeking confirmation of pricing both from customers and from employees of the Defendants themselves. When cheating did occur, it was addressed in at least four ways: 1) monitoring; 2) attendees at the meetings challenging other attendees if they did not live up to an agreement; 3) threats to undermine a competitor at one of its principal customers; and 4) a recognition in a mutual interest in living up to the target price and living up to the agreements that had been made.

152. As market conditions worsened in 2005-2007, and the rate of replacement of CRT Products by TFT-LCDs increased, the group Glass Meetings became less frequent and bilateral meetings again became more prevalent. In addition, in December 2006 the DOJ issued subpoenas to manufacturers of TFT-LCDs and so the CRT co-conspirators began to have concerns about antitrust issues.

b. Bilateral Discussions

153. Throughout the Class Period, the Glass Meetings were supplemented by bilateral discussions between various Defendants. The bilateral discussions were more informal than the group meetings and occurred on a frequent, ad hoc basis, often between the group meetings.

1 These discussions, usually between sales and marketing employees, took the form of in-person
2 meetings, telephone contacts and emails.

3 154. During the Class Period, in-person bilateral meetings took place in Malaysia,
4 Indonesia, Taiwan, China, United Kingdom, Singapore, South Korea, Japan, Thailand, Brazil
5 and Mexico.

6 155. The purpose of the bilateral discussions was to exchange information about past
7 and future pricing, confirm production levels, share sales order information, confirm pricing
8 rumors, and coordinate pricing with manufacturers in other geographic locations, including 9 Brazil, Mexico and Europe.

10 156. In order to ensure the efficacy of their global conspiracy, the Defendants also 11 used bilateral meetings to coordinate pricing with CRT Product manufacturers in Brazil and 12 Mexico, such as Philips Brazil, Samsung SDI Brazil, and Samsung SDI Mexico. These 13 Brazilian and Mexican manufacturers were particularly important because they served the North 14 American market for CRT Products. As further alleged herein, North America was the largest 15 market for CRT televisions and computer monitors during the Class Period. Because these 16 Brazilian and Mexican manufacturers are all wholly-owned and controlled subsidiaries of 17 Defendants Philips and Samsung SDI, they adhered to the unlawful price-fixing agreements. In 18 this way, the Defendants ensured that prices of all CRT Products imported into the United States 19 were fixed, raised, maintained and/or stabilized at supracompetitive levels.

20 157. Defendants also used bilateral discussions with each other during price
21 negotiations with customers to avoid being persuaded by customers to cut prices. The 22 information gained in these communications was then shared with supervisors and taken into 23 account in determining the price to be offered.

24 158. Bilateral discussions were also used to coordinate prices with CRT Product
25 manufacturers that did not ordinarily attend the group meetings, such as Defendants Hitachi,
26 Toshiba, Panasonic, Thai CRT, and Samtel. It was often the case that in the few days following
27 a Top or Management Meeting, the attendees at these group meetings would meet bilaterally
28

1 with the other Defendant manufacturers for the purpose of communicating whatever CRT
 2 Product pricing and/or output agreements had been reached during the meeting.
 3 For example, Samsung had a relationship with Hitachi and was responsible for communicating 4 CRT Product pricing agreements to Hitachi. LG had a relationship with Toshiba and was 5 responsible for communicating CRT Product pricing agreements to Toshiba. And Thai CRT
 6 had a relationship with Samtel and was responsible for communicating CRT Product pricing
 7 agreements to Samtel. Hitachi, Toshiba and Samtel implemented the agreed-upon pricing as 8 conveyed by Samsung, LG, and Thai CRT. Sometimes Hitachi and Toshiba also attended the 9 Glass Meetings. In this way, Hitachi, Toshiba and Samtel participated in the conspiracy to fix 10 prices of CRT Products.

11 c. Defendants' And Co-Conspirators' Participation In Group And Bilateral 12 Discussions

13 159. Between at least 1995 and 2007, Defendant Samsung, through SEC, Samsung
 14 SDI, Samsung SDI Malaysia, Samsung SDI Shenzhen, and Samsung SDI Tianjin, participated
 15 in at least 200 Glass Meetings at all levels. A substantial number of these meetings were 16 attended by the highest ranking executives from Samsung. Samsung also engaged in bilateral 17 discussions with each of the other Defendants on a regular basis. Through these discussions, 18 Samsung agreed on prices and supply levels for CRT Products.

19 160. Defendants SEAI, Samsung SDI America, Samsung SDI Brazil, and Samsung
 20 SDI Mexico were represented at those meetings and were a party to the agreements entered at 21 them. To the extent SEC and SEAI sold and/or distributed CRT Products, they played a
 22 significant role in the conspiracy because Defendants wished to ensure that the prices for CRT
 23 Products paid by direct purchasers would not undercut the CRT pricing agreements reached at 24 the Glass Meetings. Thus, SEAI, Samsung SDI America, Samsung SDI Brazil, and Samsung
 25 SDI Mexico were active, knowing participants in the alleged conspiracy.

26 161. Between at least 1995 and 2001, Defendant LG, through LG Electronics, Inc. and 27 LGTT, participated at least 100 Glass Meetings at all levels. After 2001, LG participated in 28 the CRT Product conspiracy through its joint venture with Philips, LG.Philips Displays (n/k/a

1 LP Displays). A substantial number of these meetings were attended by the highest ranking
2 executives from LG. LG also engaged in bilateral discussions with each of the other Defendants
3 on a regular basis. Through these discussions, LG agreed on prices and supply levels for CRT
4 Products. LG never effectively withdrew from this conspiracy.

5 162. Defendant LGEUSA was represented at those meetings and was a party to the 6 agreements entered at them. To the extent LGEUSA sold and/or distributed CRT Products, they 7 played a significant role in the conspiracy because Defendants wished to ensure that the prices
8 for CRT Products paid by direct purchasers would not undercut the pricing agreements reached 9 at the Glass Meetings. Thus, LGEUSA was an active, knowing participant in the alleged 10 conspiracy.

11 163. Between at least 1996 and 2001, Defendant Philips, through Royal Philips and 12 Philips Taiwan, participated at least 100 Glass Meetings at all levels. After 2001, Philips
13 participated in the CRT Product conspiracy through its joint venture with LG, LG.Philips
14 Displays (n/k/a LP Displays). A substantial number of these meetings were attended by high 15 level executives from Philips. Philips also engaged in numerous bilateral discussions with other
16 Defendants. Through these discussions, Philips agreed on prices and supply levels for CRT
17 Products. Philips never effectively withdrew from this conspiracy.

18 164. Defendants PENAC and Philips Brazil were represented at those meetings and 19 were a party to the agreements entered at them. To the extent PENAC and Philips Brazil sold 20 and/or distributed CRT Products to direct purchasers, they played a significant role in the 21 conspiracy because Defendants wished to ensure that the prices for CRT Products paid by direct
22 purchasers would not undercut the pricing agreements reached at the Glass Meetings. Thus,
23 PENAC and Philips Brazil were active, knowing participants in the alleged conspiracy.

24 165. Between at least 2001 and 2006, Defendant LP Displays (f/k/a LG.Philips 25 Displays) participated at least 100 Glass Meetings at all levels. A substantial number of these 26 meetings were attended by the highest ranking executives from LP Displays. Certain of these 27 high level executives from LP Displays had previously attended meetings on behalf of 28 defendants LG and Philips. LP Displays also engaged in bilateral discussions with other

1 Defendants. Through these discussions, LP Displays agreed on prices and supply levels for 2 CRT Products.

3 166. Between at least 1995 and 2006, Defendant Chunghwa, through CPT, Chunghwa
4 Malaysia, and representatives from their factories in Fuzhuo (China) and Scotland, participated
5 in at least 100 Glass Meetings at all levels. A substantial number of these meetings were 6 attended by the highest ranking executives from Chunghwa, including the former Chairman and 7 CEO of CPT, C.Y. Lin. Chunghwa also engaged in bilateral discussions with each of the other 8 Defendants on a regular basis. Through these discussions, Chunghwa agreed on prices and 9 supply levels for CRT Products.

10 167. Defendant Tatung America was represented at those meetings and was a party to 11 the agreements entered at them. To the extent Tatung America sold and/or distributed CRT
12 Products to direct purchasers, it played a significant role in the conspiracy because Defendants
13 wished to ensure that the prices for CRT Products paid by direct purchasers would not undercut
14 the pricing agreements reached at the Glass Meetings. Thus, Tatung America was an active, 15 knowing participant in the alleged conspiracy.

16 168. Between at least 1995 and 2004, Daewoo, through Daewoo Electronics, Orion
17 and DOSA, participated in at least 100 Glass Meetings at all levels. A substantial number of 18 these meetings were attended by the highest ranking executives from Daewoo. Daewoo also 19 engaged in bilateral discussions with other Defendants on a regular basis. Through these 20 discussions, Daewoo agreed on prices and supply levels for CRT Products. Bilateral 21 discussions with Daewoo continued until Orion, its wholly-owned CRT subsidiary, filed for 22 bankruptcy in 2004. Daewoo never effectively withdrew from this conspiracy.

23 169. Between at least 1995 and 2003, Defendant Toshiba, through Toshiba
24 Corporation, TDDT and TEDI, participated in several Glass Meetings. After 2003, Toshiba
25 participated in the CRT conspiracy through its joint venture with Panasonic, MTPD. These 26 meetings were attended by high level sales managers from Toshiba and MTPD. Toshiba also 27 engaged in multiple bilateral discussions with other Defendants, particularly with LG. Through 28

1 these discussions, Toshiba agreed on prices and supply levels for CRT Products. Toshiba never 2 effectively withdrew from this conspiracy.

3 170. Defendants Toshiba America, Inc., TACP, TAIP and TAEC were represented at 4 those meetings and were a party to the agreements entered at them. To the extent Toshiba
5 America, Inc., TACP, TAIP and TAEC sold and/or distributed CRT Products to direct 6 purchasers, they played a significant role in the conspiracy because Defendants wished to ensure 7 that the prices for CRT Products paid by direct purchasers would not undercut the pricing
8 agreements reached at the Glass Meetings. Thus, Toshiba America, TACP, TAIP, and TAEC
9 were active, knowing participants in the alleged conspiracy.

10 171. Between at least 1996 and 2001, Defendant Hitachi, through Hitachi, Ltd., 11 Hitachi Displays, Hitachi Shenzhen, and Hitachi Asia, participated in several Glass Meetings.
12 These meetings were attended by high level sales managers from Hitachi. Hitachi also engaged 13 in multiple bilateral discussions with other Defendants, particularly with Samsung. Through 14 these discussions, Hitachi agreed on prices and supply levels for CRT Products. Hitachi never 15 effectively withdrew from this conspiracy.

16 172. Defendants Hitachi America and HEDUS were represented at those meetings and 17 were a party to the agreements entered at them. To the extent Hitachi America and HEDUS
18 sold and/or distributed CRT Products to direct purchasers, they played a significant role in the 19 conspiracy because Defendants wished to ensure that the prices for CRT Products paid by direct 20 purchasers would not undercut the pricing agreements reached at the Glass Meetings. Thus,
21 Hitachi America and HEDUS were active, knowing participants in the alleged conspiracy.

22 173. Between at least 1996 and 2003, Defendant Panasonic (known throughout the 23 class period as Matsushita Electric Industrial Co., Ltd.), through Panasonic Corporation and 24 Matsushita Malaysia, participated in several Glass Meetings. After 2003, Panasonic participated 25 in the CRT conspiracy through its joint venture with Toshiba, MTPD. These meetings were 26 attended by high level sales managers from Panasonic and MTPD. Panasonic also engaged in 27 multiple bilateral discussions with other Defendants. Through these discussions, Panasonic
28

1 agreed on prices and supply levels for CRT Products. Panasonic never effectively withdrew 2 from this conspiracy.

3 174. Panasonic NA was represented at those meetings and was a party to the 4 agreements entered at them. To the extent Panasonic NA sold and/or distributed CRT Products
5 to direct purchasers, it played a significant role in the conspiracy because Defendants wished to 6 ensure that the prices for CRT Products paid by direct purchasers would not undercut the pricing
7 agreements reached at the Glass Meetings. Thus, Panasonic NA was an active, knowing 8 participant in the alleged conspiracy.

9 175. Between at least 2003 and 2006, Defendant MTPD participated in multiple Glass
10 Meetings and in fact led many of these meetings during the latter years of the conspiracy. These 11 meetings were attended by high level sales managers from MTPD. MTPD also engaged in 12 bilateral discussions with other Defendants. Through these discussions, MTPD agreed on prices
13 and supply levels for CRT Products.

14 176. Between at least 1998 and 2007, Defendant BMCC participated in multiple Glass
15 Meetings. These meetings were attended by high level sales managers from BMCC. BMCC
16 also engaged in multiple bilateral discussions with other Defendants, particularly the other
17 Chinese CRT manufacturers. Through these discussions, BMCC agreed on prices and supply
18 levels for CRT Products. None of BMCC's conspiratorial conduct in connection with CRT
19 Products was mandated by the Chinese government. BMCC was acting to further its own 20 independent private interests in participating in the alleged conspiracy.

21 177. Between at least 1998 and 2007, Defendant IRICO, through IGC, IGE, and 22 IDDC, participated in multiple Glass Meetings. These meetings were attended by the highest 23 ranking executives from IRICO. IRICO also engaged in multiple bilateral discussions with 24 other Defendants, particularly with other Chinese manufacturers. Through these discussions,
25 IRICO agreed on prices and supply levels for CRT Products. None of IRICO's conspiratorial
26 conduct in connection with CRT Products was mandated by the Chinese government. IRICO 27 was acting to further its own independent private interests in participating in the alleged 28 conspiracy.

178. Between at least 1997 and 2006, Defendant Thai CRT participated in multiple Glass Meetings. These meetings were attended by the highest ranking executives from Thai CRT. Thai CRT also engaged in multiple bilateral discussions with other Defendants, particularly with Samtel. Through these discussions, Thai CRT agreed on prices and supply levels for CRT Products. Thai CRT never effectively withdrew from this conspiracy.

179. Between at least 1998 and 2006, Defendant Samtel participated in multiple bilateral discussions with other Defendants, particularly with Thai CRT. These meetings were attended by high level executives from Samtel. Through these discussions, Samtel agreed on prices and supply levels for CRT Products. Samtel never effectively withdrew from this conspiracy.

180. When Plaintiffs refer to a corporate family or companies by a single name in their allegations of participation in the conspiracy, Plaintiffs are alleging that one or more employees or agents of entities within the corporate family engaged in conspiratorial meetings on behalf of every company in that family. In fact, the individual participants in the conspiratorial meetings and discussions did not always know the corporate affiliation of their counterparts, nor did they distinguish between the entities within a corporate family. The individual participants entered into agreements on behalf of, and reported these meetings and discussions to, their respective corporate families. As a result, the entire corporate family was represented in meetings and discussions by their agents and were parties to the agreements reached in them.

E. The CRT Market During The Conspiracy

181. Until the last few years, CRTs were the dominant technology used in displays, including television and computer monitors. During the Class Period, this translated into the sale of millions of CRT Products, generating billions of dollars in annual profits.

182. The following data was reported by Stanford Resources, Inc., a market research firm focused on the global electronic display industry:

Year	Units Sold (millions)	Revenue (billion US dollars)	Average Selling Price Per Unit
1998	90.5	43 $18.9	$208

1999	106.3	$19.2	$181
2000	119.0	$28.0	$235

183. During the Class Period, North America was the largest market for CRT TVs and computer monitors. According to a report published by Fuji Chimera Research, the 1995 worldwide market for CRT monitors was 57.8 million units, 28 million of which (48.5 percent) were consumed in North America. By 2002, North America still consumed around 35 percent of the world's CRT monitor supply. See, The Future of Liquid Crystal and Related Display Materials, Fuji Chimera Research, 1997, p.12.

184. Defendants' collusion is evidenced by unusual price movements in the CRT Product market during the Class Period. In the 1990s, industry analysts repeatedly predicted declines in consumer prices for CRT Products that did not fully materialize. For example, in 1992, an analyst for Market Intelligent Research Corporation predicted that "[e]conomies of scale, in conjunction with technological improvements and advances in manufacturing techniques, will produce a drop in the price of the average electronic display to about $50 in 1997." Information Display 9/92 p.19. Despite such predictions, and the existence of economic conditions warranting a drop in prices, CRT Product prices nonetheless remained stable.

185. In 1996, another industry source noted that "the price of the 14" tube is at a sustainable USD50 and has been for some years...."

186. In early 1999, despite declining production costs and the rapid entry of flat panel display products, the price of large sized color CRTs actually rose. The price increase was allegedly based on increasing global demand. In fact, this price increase was a result of the collusive conduct as herein alleged.

187. After experiencing oversupply of 17" CRTs in the second half of 1999, the average selling price of CRTs rose again in early 2000. A March 13, 2000 article in Infotech Weekly quoted an industry analyst as saying that this price increase was "unlike most other PC-related products."

188. A BNET Business Network news article from August 1998 reported that "key components (cathode ray tubes) in computer monitors have risen in price. 'Although several

1 manufacturers raised their CRT prices in the beginning of August, additional CRT price
2 increases are expected for the beginning of October....While computer monitor price increases
3 may be a necessary course of action, we [CyberVision, a computer monitor manufacturer] do
4 not foresee a drop in demand if we have to raise our prices relative to CRT price increases.”

5 189. A 2004 article from Techtree.com reports that various computer monitor
6 manufacturers, including LG Electronics, Philips, and Samsung, were raising the price of their 7 monitors in response to increases in CRT prices caused by an alleged shortage of glass shells
8 used to manufacture the tubes. Philips is quoted as saying that, “It is expected that by the end of 9 September this year [2004] there will be 20% hike in the price of our CRT monitors.”

10 190. Defendants also conspired to limit production of CRTs by shutting down
11 production lines for days at a time, and closing or consolidating their manufacturing facilities.

12 191. For example, the Defendants’ CRT factory utilization percentage fell from 90
13 percent in the third quarter of 2000 to 62 percent in the first quarter of 2001. This is the most 14 dramatic example of a drop in factory utilization. There were sudden drops throughout the 15 Class Period but to a lesser degree. Plaintiffs are informed and believe that these sudden,
16 coordinated drops in factory utilization by the Defendants were the result of Defendants’
17 agreements to decrease output in order to stabilize the prices of CRT Products.

18 192. During the Class Period, while demand in the United States for CRT Products
19 continued to decline, Defendants’ conspiracy was effective in moderating the normal downward
20 pressures on prices for CRT Products caused by the entry and popularity of the new generation
21 LCD panels and plasma display products. As Finsen Yu, President of Skyworth Macao
22 Commerical Offshore Co., Ltd., a television maker, was quoted in January of 2007: “[t]he CRT 23 technology is very mature; prices and technology have become stable.”

24 193. During the Class Period, there were not only periods of unnatural and sustained
25 price stability, but there were also increases in prices of CRT Products. These price increases
26 were despite the declining demand due to the approaching obsolescence of CRT Products
27 caused by the emergence of a new, potentially superior and clearly more popular, substitutable
28 technology.

194. These price increases and price stability in the market for CRT Products during the Class Period are inconsistent with a competitive market for a product facing rapidly decreasing demand caused by a new, substitutable technology.

F. International Government Antitrust Investigations

195. Defendants' conspiracy to fix, raise, maintain and stabilize the prices of, and restrict output for, CRT Products sold in the United States during the Class Period, is demonstrated by a multinational investigation commenced by the Antitrust Division of the United States Department of Justice ("DOJ") and others in November 2007.

196. On November 8, 2007, antitrust authorities in Europe, Japan and South Korea raided the offices of manufacturers of CRTs as part of an international investigation of alleged price fixing.

197. On February 10, 2009, the DOJ issued a press release announcing that a federal grand jury in San Francisco had that same day returned a two-count indictment against the former Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Defendant Chunghwa Picture Tubes, Ltd., Cheng Yuan Lin, aka C.Y. Lin, for his participation in global conspiracies to fix the prices of two types of CRTs used in computer monitors and televisions. The press release notes that "[t]his is the first charge as a result of the Antitrust Division's ongoing investigation into the cathode ray tubes industry." The press release further notes that Lin had previously been indicted for his participation in a conspiracy to fix the prices of TFT-LCDs. Mr. Lin's indictment states that the combination and conspiracy to fix the prices of CRTs was carried out, in part, in the Northern District of California.

198. Defendant MT Picture Display Co., Ltd., the CRT unit of Defendant Panasonic, has confirmed that it was raided by Japan's Fair Trade Commission.

199. Kyodo News reported on November 8, 2007, upon information and belief, that MT Picture Display fixed prices for CRTs with manufacturers in three Asian countries, including South Korea's Samsung SDI Co.

200. Kyodo News further reported that:

1 Officials of these three companies are believed to have had at least 10
 2 meetings since 2005 in major Asian cities to coordinate target prices when 3 delivering their products to TV manufacturers in Japan and South Korea, the sources said.

4 201. Defendant Samsung SDI Co., Ltd. was raided by South Korea's Fair Trade
 5 Commission, which has started an investigation into Samsung's CRT business.

6 202. The Asian Shimbun further reported on November 10, 2007 that "[t]he 7 representatives held meetings in Southeast Asia where the companies operate CRT factories, the 8 sources said. The European Commission, the European Union's executive branch, and the U.S.
 9 Justice Department have been investigating four companies' [referring to the four Asian-based 10 manufacturers—MT Picture Display, Samsung SDI Co., Chunghwa Picture Tubes, LP Displays]
 11 overseas units and are closely consulting with the Fair Trade Commission by sharing 12 information."

13 203. On November 21, 2007, Defendant Royal Philips publicly disclosed that it too is 14 subject to one or more investigations into anticompetitive conduct in the CRT industry. Royal 15 Philips spokesman Joon Knapen declined to comment on which jurisdictions have started 16 investigations. Royal Philips stated that it intended to assist the regulators.

17 204. In its 2008 Annual Report, Defendant Toshiba reports that "[t]he Group is also 18 being investigated by the [European] Commission and/or the U.S. Department of Justice for 19 potential violations of competition laws with respect to semiconductors, LCD products, cathode
 20 ray tubes (CRT) and heavy electrical equipment."

21 205. On May 6, 2008, the Hungarian Competition Authority ("HCA") announced its 22 own investigation into the CRT cartel. The HCA described the cartel as follows:

23 The Hungarian Competition Authority (Gazdasági Versenyhivatal – GVH)
 24 initiated a competition supervision proceeding against the following
 25 undertakings: Samsung SDI Co., Ltd., Samsung SDI Germany GmbH,
 26 Samsung SDI Magyarország Zrt., Thomson TDP sp. Z.o.o., LG Philips
 27 Displays Czech Republic s.r.o., LP Displays, Chunghwa Picture Tubes
 28 (UK), Ltd., Chunghwa Picture Tubes, Ltd., Daewoo Orion S.A., Daewoo
 Electronics Global HQ, Daewoo Electronics European HQ, MT Picture
 Display Germany GmbH, Matsushita Global HQ, Matsushita European HQ.

Based on the data available, the undertakings mentioned above concerted their practice regarding the manufacturing and distribution of cathode-ray tubes (including coloured picture tubes and coloured screen tubes) on the European market between 1995 and 2007. The anti-competitive behaviour may have concerned the exchange of sensitive market information (about prices, volumes sold, demand and the extent to which capacities were exploited), price-fixing, the allocation of market shares, consumers and volumes to be sold, the limitation of output and coordination concerning the production. The undertakings evolved a structural system and functional mechanism of cooperation.

According to the available evidences it is presumable that the coordination of European and Asian undertakings regarding to the European market also included Hungary from 1995 to 2007. The coordination concerning the Hungarian market allegedly formed part of the European coordination. Samsung SDI Magyarország was called into the proceeding since it manufactured and sold cathode-ray tubes in Hungary in the examined period, and it allegedly participated in the coordination between its parent companies.

206. As outlined above, Defendants have a history of competitor contacts resulting from joint ventures, numerous cross-licensing agreements, and other alliances in related businesses in the electronics industry.

207. Several Defendants also have a history of “cooperation” and anticompetitive conduct. For example, Defendant Samsung was fined $300 million by the U.S. Department of Justice in October 2005 for participating in a conspiracy to fix the prices of Dynamic Random Access Memory (DRAM).

208. Defendants Samsung and Toshiba have acknowledged being contacted by the U.S. Department of Justice as part of an ongoing investigation for fixing prices of Static Random Access Memory and NAND Flash Memory.

209. In December 2006, government authorities in Japan, Korea, the European Union and the United States revealed a comprehensive investigation into anticompetitive conduct in the closely-related TFT-LCD market.

210. On December 12, 2006, news reports indicated that Defendants Samsung and Chunghwa, as well as an LCD joint venture between Defendants Philips and LG Electronics, Inc, LG Display Co., Ltd., were all under investigation for price fixing of TFT-LCDs.

211. On November 12, 2008, the DOJ announced that it had reached agreements with three TFT-LCD manufacturers—LG Display Co., Ltd. (and its U.S. subsidiary, LG Display America, Inc.), Sharp Corporation, and Defendant Chunghwa Picture Tubes, Ltd.—to plead guilty to violations of Section 1 of the Sherman Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1, and pay a total of $585 million in criminal fines for their roles in a conspiracy to fix prices of TFT-LCD panels.

212. On March 10, 2009, the DOJ announced that it had reached an agreement with Defendant Hitachi Displays, Ltd., a subsidiary of Defendant Hitachi, Ltd., to plead guilty to violations of Section 1 of the Sherman Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1, and pay a $31 million fine for its role in a conspiracy to fix the prices of TFT-LCD panels.

213. The indictments of LG Display Co., Ltd., Sharp Corporation, Chunghwa Picture Tubes, Ltd. and Hitachi Displays, Ltd., all state that the combination and conspiracy to fix the prices of TFT-LCDs was carried out, in part, in the Northern District of California.

IX. THE PASS-THROUGH OF OVERCHARGES TO CONSUMERS

214. Defendants' conspiracy to fix, raise, maintain and stabilize the price of CRT Products at artificial levels resulted in harm to Plaintiffs and the indirect purchaser consumer classes alleged herein because it resulted in their paying higher prices for CRT Products than they would have paid in the absence of Defendants' conspiracy. The entire overcharge at issue was passed on to Plaintiffs and members of the indirect purchaser classes. As the DOJ acknowledged in announcing the indictment of defendant Chunghwa's former Chairman and CEO, "This conspiracy harmed countless Americans who purchased computers and televisions using cathode ray tubes sold at fixed prices."

215. The Defendants identified above that attended the Glass Meetings, monitored the prices of televisions and computer monitors sold in the U.S. and elsewhere on a regular basis. The purpose and effect of investigating such retail market data was at least three fold. First, it permitted Defendants, such as Chunghwa, which did not manufacture CRT televisions or computer monitors the way that Samsung, LG, Daewoo, Panasonic, Toshiba, Philips, and Hitachi did, to police the price fixing agreement to make sure that intra-defendant CRT sales were kept at supra-competitive levels. Secondly, it permitted all Defendants to police their price

1 fixing agreement to independent OEMs who would reduce prices for finished goods if there was
2 a corresponding reduction in CRT prices from a Defendant. Finally, as discussed above,
3 Defendants used the prices of finished products to analyze whether they could increase prices or 4 should agree to a “bottom” price instead. The Defendants concluded that in order to make their
5 CRT price increases stick, they needed to make the increase high enough that their direct
6 customers (CRT TV and monitor makers) would be able to justify a corresponding price
7 increase to their customers (for e.g., retailers and computer OEMs). In this way, Defendants
8 assured that 100% of the supracompetitive overcharges for CRT Products were passed on to 9 indirect purchaser consumers.

10 216. The indirect purchaser consumer buys CRT Products from either a computer or 11 TV OEM such as Dell or Sharp, or a reseller such as Best Buy.

12 217. Because of the breadth of the price-fixing conspiracy here, the direct purchaser
13 CRT TV and monitor manufacturers were not constrained by their competitors from passing on 14 the overcharge. Because each of the direct purchaser’s competitors were also buying CRTs at 15 supracompetitive prices from conspiracy members, no direct purchaser faced end-product price
16 competition from a competitor that was not paying supracompetitive prices for CRTs.

17 218. The price of CRT Products is directly correlated to the price of CRTs. The 18 margins for CRT TV and monitor makers are sufficiently thin that price increases of CRTs force
19 them to increase the prices of their CRT Products. This means that increases in the price of 20 CRTs lead to quick corresponding price increases at the OEM level for CRT Products.

21 219. Computer and TV OEMs and retailers of CRT Products are all subject to 22 vigorous price competition, whether selling CRT TVs or computer monitors. The demand for 23 CRTs is ultimately determined by purchasers of products containing such products. The market
24 for CRTs and the market for CRT Products are therefore inextricably linked and cannot be 25 considered separately. Defendants are well aware of this intimate relationship, and use forecasts
26 of CRT TVs and computer monitors to predict sales of and determine production levels and 27 pricing for CRTs.

1           220. Computers and televisions are commodities with little or no brand loyalty such 2 that aggressive pricing causes consumers to switch preferences to different brands. Prices are 3 closely based on production costs, which are in turn directly determined by component costs, as 4 assembly costs are minimal. OEMs accordingly use component costs, like the cost of CRTs, as 5 the starting point for all price calculations. On information and belief, computer and TV OEMs
6 price their end-products on a “cost-plus” basis. Thus, computer and television prices closely 7 track increases and decreases in component costs.

8           221. The CRT is the most expensive component in the products into which they are 9 incorporated. On information and belief, the cost of the CRT in a computer monitor is 10 approximately 60% of the total cost to manufacture the computer monitor. On information and 11 belief, the cost of the CRT in a television is a slightly smaller percentage of the total 12 manufacturing cost because a television has more components than a computer monitor, such as 13 the tuner and speakers.

14           222. Economic and legal literature recognizes that the more pricing decisions are 15 based on cost, the easier it is to determine the pass-through rate. The directness of affected costs
16 refers to whether an overcharge affects a direct (i.e., variable) cost or an indirect (i.e., overhead)
17 cost. Overcharges will be passed through sooner and at a higher rate if the overcharges affect 18 direct costs. Here, CRTs are a direct and substantial cost of CRT Products. Therefore, Plaintiffs 19 will be able to show that the overcharge on the CRTs was passed through to indirect purchasers.

20           223. Once a CRT leaves its place of manufacture, it remains essentially unchanged as 21 it moves through the distribution system. CRTs are identifiable, discreet, physical objects that 22 do not change form or become an indistinguishable part of the TV or computer monitor in which 23 they are contained. Thus, CRTs follow a traceable physical chain from the Defendants to the 24 OEMs to the purchasers of finished products incorporating CRTs.

25           224. Moreover, just as CRTs can be physically traced through the supply chain, so can 26 their price be traced to show that changes in the prices paid by direct purchasers of CRTs affect 27 prices paid by indirect purchasers of CRT Products. On information and belief, computer and 28 TV OEMs price their end-products on a “cost-plus” basis.

1        225. In retailing, it is common to use a “mark-up rule.” The retail price is set as the 2 wholesale cost plus a percentage markup designed to recover non-product costs and to provide a
 3 profit. This system guarantees that increases in costs to the retailer will be passed on to end
 4 buyers. For example, CDW, a large seller of CRT monitors, uses such a system. A declaration
 5 in the DRAM case from CDW’s director of pricing details exactly how they calculated selling
 6 prices:

7                In general, CDW employs a “building block” approach to setting its 8 advertised prices. The first building block is the Cost of Goods Sold 9 (COGS), which represents the price CDW paid to acquire the 10 product...CDW...adds a series of positive markups to the cost to CDW to 11 acquire a given product. These markups are in addition to the pass through effect of changes in the costs charged to CDW for that product by a given vendor.

12        226. Economic and legal literature has recognized that unlawful overcharges in a 13 component normally result in higher prices for products containing that price-fixed component.
 14 As Professor Herbert Hovenkamp, a noted antitrust scholar, has stated in his treatise, FEDERAL
 15 ANTITRUST POLICY, THE LAW OF COMPETITION AND ITS PRACTICE (1994) at 624:

16                A monopoly charge at the top of the distribution chain generally results in 17 higher prices at every level below. For example, if production of 18 aluminum is monopolized or cartelized, fabricators of aluminum
 19 cookware will pay higher prices for aluminum. In most cases they will 20 absorb part of these increased costs themselves and will pass part along to 21 cookware wholesalers. The wholesalers will charge higher prices to the retail stores, and the stores will do it once again to retail consumers.
 Every person at every stage in the chain will be poorer as a result of the monopoly price at the top.

22                Theoretically, one can calculate the percentage of any overcharge that a 23 firm at one distributional level will pass on to those at the next level.

24        227. Similarly, two other antitrust scholars—Professors Robert G. Harris (Professor 25 Emeritus and former Chair of the Business and Public Policy Group at the Hass School of 26 Business at the University of California at Berkeley) and the late Lawrence A. Sullivan 27 (Professor of Law Emeritus at Southwestern School of Law and author of the Handbook of the 28

1 Law of Antitrust)—have observed that “in a multiple-level chain of distribution, passing on
2 monopoly overcharges is not the exception; it is the rule.”

3 228. As Professor Jeffrey McKie-Mason (Arthur W. Burks Professor for Information
4 and Computer Science, Professor of Economics and Public Policy, and Associate Dean for 5 Academic Affairs in the School of Information at the University of Michigan), an expert who 6 presented evidence in a number of the indirect purchaser cases involving Microsoft Corporation,
7 said (in a passage quoted in a judicial decision in that case granting class certification):

8 As is well known in economic theory and practice, at least some of the 9 overcharge will be passed on by distributors to end consumers. When the 10 distribution markets are highly competitive, as they are here, all or nearly 11 the entire overcharge will be passed on through to ultimate consumers....
12 Both of Microsoft’s experts also agree upon the economic phenomenon of 13 cost pass through and how it works in competitive markets. This general 14 phenomenon of cost pass through is well established in antitrust laws and 15 economics as well.

16 229. The purpose of Defendants’ conspiratorial conduct was to fix, raise, maintain and 17 stabilize the price of CRTs and, as a direct and foreseeable result, CRT Products. The market 18 for CRTs and the market for CRT Products are inextricably linked. One exists to serve the 19 other. Defendants not only knew, but expressly contemplated that prices of CRT Products
20 would increase as a direct result of their increasing the prices of CRTs.

21 230. Finally, many of the Defendants and/or co-conspirators themselves have been 22 and are currently manufacturers of CRT TVs and computer monitors. Such manufacturers
23 include, for example, Samsung, LG, Hitachi, Toshiba, Philips, and Panasonic. Having agreed to 24 fix prices for CRTs, the major component of the end products they were manufacturing, these 25 Defendants intended to pass on the full cost of this component in their finished products, and in 26 fact did so.

27 231. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants’ illegal conduct, Plaintiffs and 28 other indirect purchasers have been forced to pay supra-competitive prices for CRT Products.
These inflated prices have been passed on to them by direct purchaser manufacturers, distributors and retailers.

1 X. CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

2 232. Plaintiffs bring this action individually and as a class action pursuant to the 3 provisions of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure on behalf of all members of the 4 following class (the "Nationwide Class"):

5 All persons and or entities who or which indirectly purchased in the United 6 States for their own use and not for resale, CRT Products manufactured and/or 7 sold by the Defendants, or any subsidiary, affiliate, or co-conspirator thereof, at 8 any time during the period from at least March 1, 1995 through at least 9 November 25, 2007. Specifically excluded from this Class are the Defendants;
10 the officers, directors or employees of any Defendant; any entity in which any 11 Defendant has a controlling interest; and, any affiliate, legal representative, heir or assign of any Defendant. Also excluded are any federal, state or local government entities, any judicial officer presiding over this action and the members of his/her immediate family and judicial staff, and any juror assigned to this action.

12 233. Plaintiffs also bring this action on behalf of themselves and as a class action
13 pursuant to the provisions of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and/or respective 14 state statute(s), on behalf of all members of the following State classes or subclasses
15 (collectively "Indirect Purchaser State Classes"): Arizona, California, District of Columbia, 16 Florida, Hawaii, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Maine, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Nebraska, 17 Nevada, New Mexico, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Puerto Rico, South Dakota, 18 Tennessee, Vermont, West Virginia, and Wisconsin.

19 234. Each of the Indirect Purchaser State Classes is defined as follows:

20 All persons and or entities in Arizona, California, District of Columbia, Florida,
21 Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Maine, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, New Mexico, 22 New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Puerto Rico, South Dakota, Tennessee, 23 Vermont, West Virginia, and Wisconsin who or which indirectly purchased for 24 their own use and not for resale, CRT Products manufactured and/or sold by the Defendants, or any subsidiary, affiliate, or co-conspirator thereof, at any time during the period from at least March 1, 1995 through at least November 25, 2007.

25 All persons and entities in Hawaii who or which indirectly purchased for their 26 own use and not for resale CRT Products manufactured and/or sold by one or 27 more of the Defendants or any of their parents, affiliates, subsidiaries, predecessors or successors in interest at any time from June 25, 2002 through at 28 least November 25, 2007.

1 All persons and entities in Nebraska who or which indirectly purchased for their
 2 own use and not for resale CRT Products manufactured and/or sold by one or
 3 more of the Defendants or any of their parents, affiliates, subsidiaries, 4 predecessors or successors in interest at any time from July 20, 2002 through at least November 25, 2007.

5 All persons and entities in Nevada who or which indirectly purchased for their
 6 own use and not for resale CRT Products manufactured and/or sold by one or
 7 more of the Defendants or any of their parents, affiliates, subsidiaries,
 8 predecessors or successors in interest at any time from February 4, 1999 through at least November 25, 2007.

9 Specifically excluded from these Classes are the Defendants; the officers,
 10 directors or employees of any Defendant; any entity in which any Defendant has a 11 controlling interest; and, any affiliate, legal representative, heir or assign of any Defendant. Also excluded are any federal, state or local government entities, any 12 judicial officer presiding over this action and the members of his/her immediate family and judicial staff, and any juror assigned to this action.

13 235. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class action
 14 pursuant to Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for the following reasons:

15 a. The Classes are ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of 16 interest among members of the Classes;

17 b. Based upon the nature of trade and commerce involved and the number of 18 indirect purchasers of CRT Products, Plaintiffs believe that the number of Class members is 19 very large, and therefore joinder of all Class members is not practicable;

20 c. Plaintiffs' claims are typical of Class members' claims because Plaintiffs 21 indirectly purchased CRT Products manufactured by Defendants or their co-conspirators, and 22 therefore Plaintiffs' claims arise from the same common course of conduct giving rise to the 23 claims of the members of the Classes and the relief sought is common to the Classes;

24 d. The following common questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to 25 the members of the Classes:

26 i. Whether Defendants formed and operated a combination or 27 conspiracy to fix, raise, maintain, or stabilize the prices of CRT Products;

1                   ii.       Whether the combination or conspiracy caused CRT Product
2 prices to be higher than they would have been in the absence of Defendants' conduct;
3                   iii.       The operative time period of Defendants' combination or 4 conspiracy;
5                   iv.       Whether Defendants' conduct caused injury to the business or 6 property of Plaintiffs and the members of the Classes;
7                   v.       The appropriate measure of the amount of damages suffered by 8 the Classes;
9                   vi.       Whether Defendants' conduct violates Section 1 of the Sherman
10 Act (15 U.S.C. § 1) as alleged in the First Claim for Relief;
11                   vii.       Whether Defendants' conduct violates the Indirect Purchaser
12 States' antitrust laws as alleged in the Second Claim for Relief;
13                   viii.       Whether Defendants' conduct violates the unfair competition and 14 consumer protection laws of the Consumer Protection States as alleged in the Third Claim for 15 Relief;
16                   ix.       The appropriate nature of class-wide equitable relief.
17           e.       These and other questions of law and fact common to the members of the 18 Classes predominate over any questions affecting only individual members, including legal and 19 factual issues relating to liability and damages;
20           f.       After determination of the predominant common issues identified above,
21 if necessary or appropriate, the Classes can be divided into logical and manageable subclasses;
22           g.       Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Classes in 23 that Plaintiffs have no interests that are antagonistic to other members of the Classes and have 24 retained counsel competent and experienced in the prosecution of class actions and antitrust
25 litigation to represent them and the Classes;
26           h.       A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and 27 efficient adjudication of this litigation since individual joinder of all damaged Class members is 28 impractical. The damages suffered by the individual Class members are relatively small, given the expense and burden of individual prosecution of the claims asserted in this litigation. Thus, absent the availability of class action procedures it would not be feasible for Class members to redress the wrongs done to them. Even if the Class members could afford individual litigation, the court system could not. Further, individual litigation presents the potential for inconsistent or contradictory judgments and would greatly magnify the delay and expense to all parties and the court system. Therefore, the class action device presents far fewer case management difficulties and will provide the benefits of unitary adjudication, economy of scale and comprehensive supervision in a single court;

i. Defendants have acted, and/or refused to act, on grounds generally applicable to the Classes, thereby making appropriate final injunctive relief with respect to the Classes as a whole; and

j. In the absence of a class action, Defendants would be unjustly enriched because they would be able to retain the benefits and fruits of its wrongful conduct.

XI. VIOLATIONS ALLEGED

A. First Claim for Relief: Violation of Section 1 of the Sherman Act

236. Plaintiffs incorporate and reallege, as though fully set forth herein, each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint.

237. Beginning at a time unknown to Plaintiffs, but at least as early as March 1, 1995, through at least November 25, 2007, the exact dates being unknown to Plaintiffs and exclusively within the knowledge of Defendants, Defendants and their co-conspirators, entered into a continuing agreement, understanding, and conspiracy to unreasonably restrain trade and commerce in the United States, in violation of Section 1 of the Sherman Act, 15 U.S.C. §1.

238. In particular, Defendants have combined and conspired to fix, raise, maintain or stabilize the prices of CRT Products sold in the United States.

239. Defendants, by their unlawful conspiracy, artificially raised, inflated and maintained the market prices of CRT Products as herein alleged.

240. The contract, combination or conspiracy consisted of a continuing agreement, understanding and concert of action among Defendants and their co-conspirators, the substantial

1 terms of which were to fix, raise, maintain and stabilize the prices of CRT Products they sold in 2 the United States and elsewhere.

3 241. In formulating and carrying out the alleged agreement, understanding, and 4 conspiracy, the Defendants and their co-conspirators did those things that they combined and 5 conspired to do, including, but not limited to the acts, practices, and course of conduct set forth
 6 above, and the following, among others:

- 7 a. Participated in meetings and conversations to discuss the prices and 8 supply of CRT Products in the United States and elsewhere;
- 9 b. Agreed to manipulate prices and limit supply of CRT Products sold in the 10 United States and elsewhere in a manner that deprived direct and indirect
 11 purchasers of CRT Products of free and open competition;
- 12 c. Issued price announcements and price quotations in accordance with the 13 agreements reached;
- 14 d. Sold CRT Products to customers in the United States at non-competitive 15 prices; and
- 16 e. Invoiced customers in the United States at the agreed-upon, fixed prices
 17 for CRT Products and transmitting such invoices via U.S. mail and other 18 interstate means of delivery.

19 242. The combination and conspiracy alleged herein has had the following effects, 20 among others:

- 21 a. Price competition in the sale of CRT Products has been restrained, 22 suppressed and/or eliminated in the United States;
- 23 b. Prices for CRT Products sold by Defendants and their co-conspirators 24 have been fixed, raised, maintained and stabilized at artificially high, non-25 competitive levels throughout the United States; and
- 26 c. Those who purchased CRT Products directly or indirectly from 27 Defendants have been deprived the benefits of free and open competition.

243. As a direct result of the unlawful conduct of Defendants and their co-conspirators in furtherance of their continuing contract, combination or conspiracy, Plaintiffs and the members of the Nationwide Class have been injured and will continue to be injured in their business and property by paying more for CRT Products purchased indirectly from the Defendants and their co-conspirators than they would have paid and will pay in the absence of the combination and conspiracy.

244. These violations are continuing and will continue unless enjoined by this Court.

245. Pursuant to Section 16 of the Clayton Act, 15 U.S.C. § 26, Plaintiffs and the Nationwide Class seek the issuance of an injunction against Defendants, preventing and restraining the violations alleged herein.

- 1 c. During the Class Period, Defendants' illegal conduct substantially
2 affected Arizona commerce.

18 and engaged in a continuing unlawful trust in restraint of the trade and 19 commerce described above in violation of Section 16720, California

21 acted in violation of Section 16720 to fix, raise, stabilize and maintain 22 prices of CRT Products at supra-competitive levels.

3 c. For the purpose of forming and effectuating the unlawful trust, the 4 defendants and their co-conspirators have done those things which they 5 combined and conspired to do, including but in no way limited to the acts,

20 their business and property in that they paid more for CRT Products than 21 they otherwise would have paid in the absence of Defendants' unlawful 6 competitive manner.

- 7 e. As consumers, the New York Plaintiffs and the members of the New York
8 Indirect Purchaser Class were targets of the conspiracy.
- 9 f. Defendants' secret agreements as described herein were not known to the

Gen. Bus. Law § 349 (h).

7 by affecting, fixing, controlling and/or maintaining, at artificial and/or

- 10 b. Defendants deliberately failed to disclose material facts to the Vermont
11 Plaintiff and members of the Vermont Indirect Purchaser Class
12 concerning Defendants' unlawful activities and artificially inflated prices
13 for CRT Products. Defendants owed a duty to disclose such facts, and 14 considering the relative lack of sophistication of the average, non-business
15 consumer, Defendants breached that duty by their silence. Defendants
16 misrepresented to all consumers during the Class Period that Defendants 17 CRT Product prices were competitive and fair.
- 18 c. Because of Defendants' unlawful and unscrupulous trade practices in 19 Vermont, the Vermont Plaintiff and members of the Vermont Indirect
20 Purchaser Class who indirectly purchased CRT Products were misled or

281. Defendants have been unjustly enriched through overpayments by Plaintiffs and the Class members and the resulting profits.

XII. FRAUDULENT CONCEALMENT

284. Throughout the relevant period, Defendants affirmatively and fraudulently concealed their unlawful conduct against Plaintiffs and the Classes.

1           285. Plaintiffs and the members of the Classes did not discover, and could not discover
2 through the exercise of reasonable diligence, that Defendants were violating the law as alleged
3 herein until shortly before this litigation was commenced. Nor could Plaintiffs and the Class
4 members have discovered the violations earlier than that time because Defendants conducted
5 their conspiracy in secret, concealed the nature of their unlawful conduct and acts in furtherance
6 thereof, and fraudulently concealed their activities through various other means and methods
7 designed to avoid detection. In addition, the conspiracy was by its nature self-concealing.

8           286. Defendants engaged in a successful, illegal price-fixing conspiracy with respect
9 to CRT Products, which they affirmatively concealed, in at least the following respects:

- 10           a. By agreeing among themselves not to discuss publicly, or otherwise 11 reveal, the nature and substance of the acts and communications in furtherance of their illegal 12 scheme, and by agreeing to expel those who failed to do so;
- 13           b. By agreeing among themselves to limit the number of representatives 14 from each Defendant attending the meetings so as to avoid detection;
- 15           c. By agreeing among themselves to refrain from listing the individual 16 representatives of the Defendants in attendance at meetings in any meeting report;
- 17           d. By agreeing among themselves to refrain from taking meeting minutes or 18 taking any kind of written notes during the meetings;
- 19           e. By giving false and pretextual reasons for their CRT Product price 20 increases during the relevant period and by describing such pricing falsely as being the result of 21 external costs rather than collusion;
- 22           f. By agreeing among themselves on what to tell their customers about price 23 changes, and agreeing upon which attendee would communicate the price change to which 24 customer;
- 25           g. By agreeing among themselves to quote higher prices to certain customers 26 than the fixed price in effect to give the appearance that the price was not fixed;
- 27           h. By agreeing among themselves upon the content of public statements 28 regarding capacity and supply;

i. By agreeing among themselves to eliminate references in expense reports which might reveal the existence of their unlawful meetings; and

j. By agreeing on other means to avoid detection of their illegal conspiracy to fix the prices of CRT Products.
